Werner Enterprises Named a Top 50 Military-Friendly Employer

OMAHA, Neb. –For the third year in a row, Werner Enterprises, Inc. (NASDAQ: WERN) has been recognized in G.I. Jobs' sixth annual list of the nation's Top 50 Military-Friendly Employers®. Werner Enterprises was selected from over 2,500 eligible companies for the company's proactive veteran hiring efforts, percentage of new hires who are veterans, Reserve/Guard policies and veteran training programs.

Many military veterans possess valuable skills that transition well for Werner Enterprises, which is why they are so valuable to the company. To attract and retain veterans, the company has instituted the Werner Enterprises Professional Truck Driver Apprenticeship Program. This U.S. Department of Labor approved program provides veterans joining Werner Enterprises' professional driving force structured, on-the-job training and allows them to draw from their G.I. Bill during their first year driving for the company.

“The Apprenticeship Program and other policies are the reason veterans comprise 20 percent of our entire company workforce,” said John Moore, manager of qualified recruiting for Werner Enterprises. “We emphasize the recruiting of veterans and each month we hire around 50 veterans for professional driving positions.”
